inal Shopping Plans for the Day Are Influenced by the Final "Store News" for That Day, Appearing in the Morning Newspaper.

"If "Timeliness" were not an important element n all business, as in all affairs of life, there would be little use for the telephone or telegraph.

To tell a friend, who has just returned from a journey, of the places and things of interest she might have visited, is less of a service to her than to tell her of these things BEFORE SHE STARTED ON

And so it is with store-advertising. The merchant who offers something of special value to the homemaker should tell the home-maker about it BEFORE SHE HAS STARTED ON HER DAY'S SHOP-PING TRIP, not after she has returned. It is better

Whatever a merchant may have to offer to a homemaker, in the way of real buying opportunities, should be described to her in that merchant's "ad" in her morning newspaper-upon which she relies for her "deciding store-news.

Cut by Lighta Water Bottle.

His neek badly cut when a lithing water bottle, which he was in the act of slinging across his shoulder, broke and the sharp edges of the glass missed his jugular vein by a fraction of an inch, W. J. Reed, of 3997 Lawson Street, bled dangerously yesterday afternoon until a dector arrived and succeeded in stopping the flow. The bottle was a heavy five-gallon recepticle filled with water, and an examination showed that the glass was much thinner at the place of the break than elsewhere. Although the gash in Reed's neck was a severe one, he was able to make his way home after he had been treated.
